FAQs

Can I cancel my order or change the size/color?

We start dispatching your order right away, so we're unable to make any changes to an order once it is placed. Not to worry, we have a very flexible return policy! Items may be returned within 30 days of the order date for store credit or a refund.

I've entered the wrong shipping address!

Uh oh! We'll try and fix this for you before your order ships, but be sure to email us ASAP with your order number and the correct address! If the order is shipped by the time you get in contact with us, you will need to reach out to the carrier to see if you can redirect the package.

When will my order be shipped?

We ship your order within 24 hours usually (except weekends and holidays). Any orders placed over the weekend or on a public holiday are shipped the following business day.

How do I make a return?

Please head over to our returns page for return instructions.
